THE Collection now offered for Public Sale in this Catalogue, formed the whole of the Library, collected by a coincidence of diligence, taste, and good sense, by the late Reverend Possessor of it, and his learned Father, after a pursuit of near a century; with this exception, that in order not to be entirely without Books from May to November, at which time he resides at his rural Rectory, he has reserved for himself the Transactions of the Royal and Antiquarian Societies, and a few other Books, amounting in the whole to about three hundred pounds worth. Indeed, some time since, a most delicate application was made for the three following Books out of this Library, viz.

1st, CLARKE'S HOMER, 4to. the finest possible Copy, on LARGE PAPER.

2d, BARNES' EURIPIDES, a charming Copy, on LARGE PAPER.

3d, And lastly, MAITTAIRE'S CORPUS POETARUM, a fine tall Copy, on LARGE PAPER; but as the Reverend Gentleman was not a Bookseller, and the Applicant was, though the request was complied with, no money passed, but Sixty Pounds or Guineas was most liberally allowed by the Purchaser in modern books.

Thus far it was thought necessary to state, to shew that, with the exception of the three above stated articles, not a Book has been taken away, or a Book added: they are all pure and perfect, and form the entire Collection, with the above exceptions. It was the wish of my deceased Friend, whose Property they were, and to whose Executors the Proceeds will be paid, to have them sold without the least reserve; and as he passed through life with the most active, though unostentatious friendship towards all mankind, and died without a blemish or spot on his character, or any asperity of resentment to any one person whatever—though his latter moments were attempted to be disturbed by an incivility and wrong interpretation of motives, from a quarter the least and last to be expected—the last act of his life was an act of the most noble munificence and friendship.

I am sure his Executors will carry his intentions most religiously into execution, and not bid by themselves, or any other person on their account, for any one article contained in this Catalogue. The only interest that I have in the Sale of this Library, is four per cent., and the expences out of pocket; and I do most solemnly declare, that I will not bid for, or buy on my own account, any one Book.

EDWARD JEFFERY,
No. 11, Pall-Mall.

March 21, 1810.

CONDITIONS OF SALE.

I. The highest Bidder to be the Buyer; and if any dispute arise between two or more Bidders, the Lot so disputed shall be put up again and re-sold.

II. No person to advance less than Sixpence; above One Pound, One Shilling; above Five Pounds, Two Shillings and Sixpence; and so on in proportion.

III. The Purchasers to give in their Names and Places of Abode, and to pay down Five Shillings in the Pound, in part of payment of the Purchase Money, if required; in default of which, the Lot or Lots so purchased, to be immediately put up again and re-sold.

IV. The Books are all presumed to be Perfect, as they have been twice collated by PERSONS OF REAL REPUTATION AND HONOUR, and of the most exemplary literary industry and application. But if any should prove otherwise before delivery, the Purchasers are at liberty to take or reject them.

V. To prevent the inconvenience that frequently attend long and Open Accounts, all Lots must be cleared within Three Days after the Sale, and the remainder of the Purchase Money to be absolutely paid on or before the delivery.

VI. Upon failure of complying with the above Conditions, Money deposited in part of Payment, shall be forfeited. All Lots uncleared within the time aforesaid, shall be re-sold, by Public or Private Sale; and the Deficiency (if any) attending such Re-sale, shall be made good by the Defaulters at this Sale.

Noblemen and Gentlemen who cannot attend the Sale, may have their Commissions faithfully executed, by sending their real Names to the place of Sale, as the Auctioneer will not bid one Sixpence on his own account for any article; neither will he take any Commissions without the real Name of the Person is specified.

N. B. The above is an introduction and particular catalogue of the contents of all the great historical collections of Hebrew, Greek, Roman, and Christian Antiquities; such as Arndt, Dassovius, Grævius, Gronovius, Burman, Montfaucon, Polenus, the Thesaurus Antiquitate Hebraicarum, 14 vol. folio, the Thesaurus Germanicarum, the Scriptores de Sacerdotibus, &c. &c. The preceding article, No. 240, contains a particular account of all the treasures contained in ancient Greek learning, sacred and profane, together with the history and Sciences. I hope it will be a sufficient apology and excuse to say, that such an attempt as giving the contents in this Catalogue is out of the power of the compiler of it, and will not be even aimed at in its further progress, as he would deem himself impertinent and intrusive in the extreme in doing so.

421 BIBLIA Polyglotta, a Waltona, 6 vol. with the cancelled leaves of the preface ——— London, folio 1657

Lexicon Heptaglotton, a Castello, 2 vol. London, 1657

With the republican leaves. This noble work was begun in October 1653, under the patronage and protection of Oliver Cromwell, and Walton thought himself bound in gratitude and honour to dedicate his Polyglot unto him; but the Protector dying before it was finished, many leaves of the preface was recomposed and reprinted in order to gratify Charles the Second, with some pretty severe invectives against the republicans; Charles, in return for this civility, made Dr. Walton his chaplain, and Bishop of Chester A few copies had escaped with the original leaves, and this is one of them. However, this has the loyal dedication likewise, and is the finest book of its kind in the world. It is cut as large as possible, ruled with red lines throughout, and bound in red morocco, gilt leaves, by ROGER PAYNE, in his best way; with the fine portrait of Walton by Lombart; the frontispiece, map, plan of Jerusalem, large plate of sacred Architecture, the three views of the Temple of Jerusalem on one large sheet, with the large plate of the interior of the temple, altarpiece, chandaliers, &c. with the vestiges of the Temple as it appeared in the time of Herod, all engraved by HOLLAR, in his neatest manner, with the portrait of Castello engraved by FAITHORNE.

1859 Pierce's Plowman's Vision, fine copy, in morocco London, printed by Robert Crowley, 4to, 1550

The following is a manuscript note which Mr. Pope made in his copy of this book: — An ignorant, plain man, having learned his Pater Noster and Ave Maria, wants to learn his Creed; he asks several religious men of the several orders to teach it him. First of a Friar-Minor, who bids him beware of the Carmelites, and assures him they can teach nothing, describing their faults, &c.; but that the Friar-Minors shall save him, whether he learns his Creed or not. He goes next to the Friar Preachers whose magnificent monastery he describes. There he meets a fat friar, who declaimes against the Augustines. He is shocked at his pride, and goes to the Augustines; they rail at the Minorites: he goes to the Carmelites, they abuse the Dominicans, but promise him salvation, without the Creed, for money. He leaves them with indignation, and finds an honest poor ploughman in the field, and tells him how he was disappointed by the four orders: the ploughman answers with a long invective against them.—N. B. The Author was Robert Longland.

for just rules concerning action, than to all the books he ever read.

Books printed by the Illustrious Family of the Stephens's.

2985 Bovilli Opera de Intellectu de Sensu de oppositorum de Generatione de Sapiente, &c. &c. with a great number of curious wood cuts, bound by Baumgarten, extremely rare, the only copy I have ever seen, and came out of the Jesuits'

Library at Paris on their dispersion
H. Stephanis, 8vo 1510

N. B. The above work was printed by the Patriarch of the family of the Stephens's, any honourable minded being who looks at this Book, and knows the history and unmerited fate of this truly illustrious man's sons, and does not shed a tear and feel indignation, ought never to enter the kingdom of Heaven. A very curious fact may be discovered, on looking over this work, though of the size of a small folio, it is absolutely an octavo, for on collating the signature, there are eight leaves to make up the sheet.

This is the most celebrated publication of the 15th century. Mr. Palmer observes in his History of Printing, 'this excellent work I have seen in the curious library of Dr. Mead, and I dare affirm, that whoever examines the whiteness and strength of the paper, the fineness of the character, the elegant disposition of the matter, the exact distance between the lines, the large margin, in short the whole performance with its various ornaments, will easily own it a master-piece in that kind.'

Mr. Gibbon remarks, speaking of Aldus, his glory must not tempt us to forget the Florence Homer of 1488, which displays all the luxury of the typographical art.

THE

ANTIQUARIAN REPERTORY,

A MISCELLANEOUS ASSEMBLAGE OF

TOPOGRAPHY, HISTORY, BIOGRAPHY, CUSTOMS, AND MANNERS,

INTENDED TO ILLUSTRATE AND PRESERVE

SEVERAL VALUABLE REMAINS OF OLD TIMES,

F. R. AND A. S. S.

AND OTHER EMINENT ANTIQUARIES;

WITH ONE HUNDRED AND EIGHTY-NINE PORTRAITS, VIEWS, &c.

A few Copies on Large Paper, Price Twenty Guineas in Boards.

This Work throws abundant light on the Manners and Customs of Ancient Times, and embraces with the utmost minuteness, the Value of Money, Houses, Land, &c.; the Provision usually made for the Younger Branches of Great Families, the Prices of Apparel, the Expences of Housekeeping, Accounts of Ancient Furniture, Anecdotes of Dress (particularly that of the Court, the Church, and the Army), Religious Ceremonies, Masques, Tournaments, Theatrical Exhibitions, &c. &c. absolutely necessary for every Public Library, Divine, Lawyer, Statesman, Soldier, or private Gentleman, in the United Kingdom.

Let us begin with the Divine: his profession indispensably obliges him to be an Antiquarian in the most extensive sense of the word, and to study the History of this Globe, and all things in it, from their very origin; and, as a Member of the National Church, he ought to have an insight into the Monastic Records, and be enabled to read the Ancient Charters and Deeds of Indowment in their original state.

To every Man of the Law, a knowledge of our National Antiquities is indispensably necessary. What is the Common Law but a series of Ancient Customs? How can a Judge or Advocate expatiate on the spirit of any Statute, without knowing the History of the Manners, Customs, or even Vices of the Times when it was framed?

Let us next turn to the Statesman and Legislator; his very being depends on the knowledge of History and Antiquities.

If he is a Member of either House, he ought to know the Rules, Precedents, and Orders of that Community.

A general knowledge of Antiquity is professionally necessary to a Soldier; without it, it is impossible he should receive the least benefit from the relation of former Sieges or Battles, unless he considers the Military Buildings, Engines, Weapons offensive and defensive, together with the Discipline of the Times.

To the Private Gentleman nothing can be more ornamental than a tincture of this knowledge; without it he cannot be qualified ably to serve as a Member of Parliament, Justice of Peace, or even as a Juror. Even as a Man of Pleasure, some smattering of this knowledge is required: if he would appear at a Masquerade in an old character, he must have some standard from which to form his Dress.

The Professors of Architecture, Sculpture, or Painting, cannot go on a moment in their respective Professions, without more than a moderate share of Antiquarian Learning.

The want of acquaintance with the Costume of the Times, makes our Theatrical Heroes and Princesses fall into the most manifest absurdities.

Some curions Particulars relative to Mary Queen of Scots.

Curious original Letter from the Grand Turk to Queen Elizabeth, 1590, published from a MS. in possession of the Earl of Essex, at Cashiobury.

An original ancient Contract, to buy and sell the Devill.

Memoirs of Thomas Lord Fairfax, from the original Manuscript at Leeds Castle, in Kent, with an Equestrian Portrait, finely engraved.

Proctor's Chronicle of Sir Thomas Wyatt's Rebellion; one of the scarcest Tracts in all English History, and the only particular Historian that wrote and lived in Queen Mary's Reign.

A complete and improved Edition of the Northumberland House Hold Boke, together with the Travels of the same Earl of Northumberland with Henry the Eighth to the Siege of Tournay, from the original in the possession of the Right Hon. the Earl of Egremont. This Manuscript, so extremely interesting in itself, is rendered peculiarly valuable in this place, as it forms so apt a Supplement to that eminent curiosity, the Northumberland HOUSEHOLD Book. The two together furnish us with every part of an Establishment of a great Nobleman at that time; for we have in the one, a particular account of the almost endless variety of splendour and comfort that surrounded him in Domestic Life, and in the other a detail, not less minute, of the Necessaries, the Conveniences, and the Decorations of his Equipment for War; with a variety of curious particulars, Biographical Notices of the great and noble Family of the Percys, and other great Families in almost every County in Great Britain; with many hundred other articles, equally curious and entertaining.

N. B. Of this interesting Work (of which only 500 Copies on Small Paper, and a few on large, have been printed), upwards of 450 have been subscribed for by the Nobility, Gentry, Booksellers, &c., a List of whom is annexed; and as it will not again be printed, it cannot fail of becoming extremely scarce.
